ENGAGEDSCHOLARSHIP@CSU

EngagedScholarship@CSU, the university's open-access digital repository, holds more than 12,000 items, including journal articles, books, and images created by CSU faculty, staff, and students. There were 376,059 full-text downloads in FY15 and 640,632 all time downloads through June 2015. It electronically manages an increasing number of conferences held on campus each year and provides a system for the production of online journals. The repository also holds original books and journals produced by faculty via the library's publishing imprint, MSL Academic Endeavors. ES@CSU includes SelectedWorks pages to showcase an individual's work. Faculty receive monthly emails with statistics indicating the number of downloads and searches for their works. A live Readership Map was made available to provide a real-time visualization of downloads across the globe. EngagedScholarship@CSU is connected to the larger network of other institutions using Digital Commons, numbering 450 institutions.
