In the 1950s and 60s over a million unmarried women in the United States lost their babies to adoption. Cleveland State University Michael Schwartz Library, in partnership with Adoption Network Cleveland present an opportunity to hear what they have to say about their experiences and the long-term impact on their lives.

ADOPTION’S HIDDEN HISTORY

Featuring the Cleveland Debut of the Documentary Film by Ann Fessler

Thursday, November 29, 2012
7:00 to 9:00 pm
Doors Open at 6:00 pm
Cleveland State University
Main Classroom Auditorium
1899 East 22nd Street,
Cleveland  44115

Film Screening • Panel Discussion • Book Signing – The Girls Who Went Away by Ann Fessler

A GIRL LIKE HER

In the 1950s and 60s over a million unmarried women in the United States lost their babies to adoption. Cleveland State University Michael Schwartz Library, in partnership with Adoption Network Cleveland present an opportunity to hear what they have to say about their experiences and the long-term impact on their lives.

For more information go to:  http://engagedscholarship.csuohio.edu/fessler