Below are the steps to follow to determine and access what journals the CSU Library subscribes to in full text. When you have a particular journal article reference and want to get the full text of that article, just click on the Journal Finder link from the Library Homepage:
Type in the Journal title in the search box, click search...

and you will see the following, which shows if we have the journal in print or online or both, and lists the dates of coverage.
Chemistry and Industry (London) (0009-3068)

from 1932 to 2007 Incomplete in Library’s print journals from 01/01/1989 to present in Expanded Academic ASAP
from 01/12/2009 to present in Business Source Complete from 01/12/2009 to present in Computers & Applied Sciences Complete

Print journals are usually bound and located on the 4th floor of the library, arranged alphabetically by journal title. Individual articles may be photocopied. If CSU does not subscribe to that journal, you will see a message saying “0 records retrieved.”

Clicking on one of the ONLINE links shown above will take you to a page where you can search for the individual article by choosing the year, volume, issue no, and page numbers to get to the full text. Below is the page for the journal “Chemistry and Industry:”
Pages for other online journals will look different depending on the publisher and/or vendor. For example, the page below shows an OhioLINK journal:
